

BookPeople Field Trips

We love welcoming groups of kids and educators—big and small—that are excited about books and want to learn about the industry, or simply visit the store to do some shopping! Field trips may include a store tour, storytime, shopping time, a Q&A session with a bookseller, or book talks depending on the need of the school. For details and options, please contact Eugenia Vela, kids_marketing (at) bookpeople.com

Pricing: $4.50 per student
